Anti-Bullying Week

Dear Parents and Carers,

As part of our commitment to fostering a respectful and inclusive school environment, we will be taking part in Anti-Bullying Week this year from 16th – 20th November. The theme this year is 'Break the Silence'.

We will be kicking off Anti-Bullying Week on Monday 16th November by taking part in Odd Socks Day. This is an opportunity to encourage the children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique.

We are also pleased to inform you that we will be welcoming OpenView Education to our school on Tuesday 17th November to deliver Anti-Bullying Workshops for our pupils.

OpenView Education are Associate Members of the Anti-Bullying Alliance and specialists in delivering interactive, drama-based workshops that support children in understanding what bullying is, how to respond confidently, and how we can all play a part in creating a kind school community.

What to expect:

- Year 6 pupils will take part in a high-energy workshop focusing on recognising bullying, and learning practical skills for responding to conflicts.
- Years 3-5 will experience an interactive Anti-Bullying Theatre Show, using live performance to explore the topic.
- EYFS and KS1 pupils will enjoy a story-led session with puppetry and movement that promotes kindness and friendship in an age-appropriate and engaging way.

These sessions are aligned with our school's safeguarding responsibilities and support the national Anti-Bullying Week theme.

These workshops are part of our broader commitment to helping pupils feel confident, valued, and supported. By developing their understanding of bullying and building practical, age-appropriate skills, we empower our students to navigate social situations with empathy and resilience.

We are asking for a contribution of £3.00 towards the cost of the performances. This can be made via www.parentpay.com

We look forward to a valuable and engaging week of learning.

Yours sincerely,

Vivian Bull
