CHRISTMAS JUMPER DAY GET YOUR SPARKLE ON

Dear Parents/Carers,

As the festive period really starts to get underway and the children start getting excited about all there is to come, the Year 6 Leaders will be spreading awareness of the charity Save the Children by getting Rockmount Primary School to support their Christmas Jumper Day initiative.

On Wednesday 20th December, which is when we will also be having our class Christmas parties, staff and children can wear something festive to spread some Christmas cheer. This could be anything that 'sparkles', from some festive socks, a piece of tinsel in your hair or a Christmas jumper. There is no pressure on the children to wear the latest fashion or for parents to buy expensive clothing.

If you would like to make a donation of up to £1 for Save the Children, please do so via your child's class. This money will go towards helping children across the globe, specifically in war torn countries such as Ukraine and Gaza.

We thank you for your ongoing support.

Kind regards,

Mr Ampofo, Miss Thompson and the Year 6 Leaders
