Wednesday 5th November 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

Odd Socks Day 2025 will take place on Monday 10th November 2025, marking the start of Anti-Bullying Week.

This event, led by the School Council in association with Anti-Bullying Alliance, encourages everyone to wear odd socks to celebrate individuality and uniqueness. It's a fun and simple way to remind us all that it's okay to be different and that our differences should be respected and celebrated.

The theme for this year's Anti-Bullying Week is "Power for Good", which focuses on how we can all use our influence to stand up against bullying and spread kindness.

We are asking all children (and staff!) to come to school wearing odd socks on Monday 10th November, to show their support for this important message - that we are all different and the world would be a very boring place if we were all the same. For more information about Anti-Bullying Week, please visit <https://anti-bullyingalliance.org.uk/anti-bullying-week-2025/parents-and-carers>

Thank you for your continued support in helping us promote kindness, respect and inclusion at our school.

Thank you everyone,

The Rockmount School Councillors
